

Bass Lake Mini-Vacation

June 12-15, 2008

Sponsored by the Unitarian Universalist Association,
Pacific Central District Camps and Conferences Committee, and the Unitarian Universalist Church of Palo Alto

Experience a wonderful long weekend at a beautiful mountain camp where all ages are welcome, where delicious meals are cooked for you, where there are no committee meetings, no chores, and no instructions except to have fun!

At 3400 ft. elevation, the camp sits among the pines with its own private Bass Lake waterfront. The camp is located near Oakhurst, about four hours from the Bay Area.

ACTIVITIES

You select your own activities at your own pace. You can hike, swim, canoe, water ski, kayak, do arts and crafts, go horseback riding, read, snooze, play volley-ball, basketball, tennis, ping pong, or tether ball.

One horseback ride is included with your registration (ages 5 and up). Water skiing and boat rides are available for an extra fee. The south end of Yosemite Park is approximately 45 minutes away.

FOOD AND DRINK

Three delicious hot meals a day are prepared for you beginning with breakfast on Friday morning. Most lunches and dinners include an extensive salad bar, and vegetarian options are available at every meal. You can pack a sack lunch if you will be out of camp at lunchtime. (The camp is unable to accommodate special diets, so you will need to provide for food allergies or other dietary needs.)

On Friday and Saturday evenings immediately before dinner is Social Hour on the outdoor deck of the main hall. Appetizers are served by the camp staff and augmented by the campers, who bring snacks and beverages to share.

You are invited to arrive Thursday afternoon. Feel free to bring your own Thursday night picnic supper or dine at a local restaurant. The first meal provided by the camp is breakfast on Friday morning.

EVENINGS

In the evenings, the camp offers a campfire program after dinner. Bring songs, skits, jokes, music, and/or poetry to share at Saturday night's Talent Night. A campfire wouldn't be a campfire without marshmallows roasted over the coals. Back in the main hall, we play cards or other games, read, knit, work on jigsaw puzzles, play ping pong, foosball, and so on. Bring your favorite games and jigsaw puzzles to share. Some venture down to the dock to stargaze.

ACCOMMODATIONS

You stay in one of the rustic screened cabins that sleep up to eight people (each cabin has four bunk beds). A single bed and mattress is provided for each camper. You provide your own sleeping bag or linens. Bathhouses have sinks, showers, toilets, electricity, and lights, but cabins do not. Weather is typically warm in the daytime, but temperatures can dip to 45 degrees F in the evening. Rain is possible. Dress is very casual.

FEES

Registration begins April 1, 2008.

The fee includes three nights of lodging, 8 meals beginning with Friday breakfast, and one horseback ride for ages 5 and up.

Change in the fee structure for 2008:

For cabins with three or more people, the fee is per person.

For cabins with two or fewer persons (1 or 2 adults, 1 adult and 1 child, or 1 adult and 1 baby), the fee is the minimum cabin fee.
